The death of a loved one, whether sudden or expected, still leaves a deep sense of shock, loss and bewilderment. We, in the days immediately after the death try to carry out the wishes of our deceased loved one, who now rests in the loving arms of Jesus in Heaven.

There is always a need to mark their lives and our love for them. This is done in many different ways such as purchasing a stone for the grave or planting trees or roses. These memorials are very important but do need constant attention to keep them in a condition that befits the loving memory.

St Hilda's Books of Remembrance are displayed within the church in an oak and glass cabinet. Each page being for a different day of the year. The page being turned daily to show, on their anniversary, the names of those who are now in paradise with Our Lord.

The names then form part of the daily prayer life of the church when we remember, by name, those whose anniversaries are within that week. It can also be a focus for the family who may wish to spend some quiet time within the church rather than going to the local crematorium or cemetery.

Unfortunately the cost of venture cannot be borne wholly by St Hilda's and therefore we ask individuals to make a donation. We suggest £35 for each name would help to cover the costs. If two entries are received on the same form, we are happy that a £10 reduction be made for additional names (£60 for two, £85 for three—you may send an additional page with this form for further names).

We will also add your entry to the 'Book of Remembrance' page on St Hilda's Church website: www.sthilda.org

If you are a UK tax payer, by ticking the 'gift aid it' box will help towards the cost of maintaining these books →
